SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2011-090526

08/22/2011

Discussion is held regarding the status of the North Carolina case (10CV 01686) and the status of the Arizona case.

10:37 a.m. Matter concludes

10:38 a.m. Court reconvenes with the Honorable Deborah P. Brown, who is appearing telephonically.

A record of the proceedings is made by audio and/or videotape in lieu of a court reporter.

Discussion is held regarding the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

THE COURT FINDS that North Carolina was the home state of the minor child, Sophia Fusco, born, November 23, 2009 and who remained living in North Carolina until mid May 2010 when Mother removed her from North Carolina without Father's permission.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS the state of North Carolina issued emergency custody orders on May 25, 2010. North Carolina had continuing jurisdiction over the child and still does through those emergency orders. Since that time Mother has filed a petition in Arizona on January 27, 2011. The state of North Carolina does not choose to decline jurisdiction and does not find that North Carolina is an inconvenient forum, since Mother's family lives in the state and there is no connection to Arizona except for Mother and her boyfriend.

LET THE RECORD REFLECT that the Court has concerns about the lack of actual service as the Court has not seen the North Carolina case file and service by publication is not very effective.

IT IS ORDERED that North Carolina has continuing jurisdiction and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED dismissing this cause in its entirety.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED signing this minute entry as a formal order of this Court pursuant to Rule 81, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.
